ALIAS SUMMONS.

IN the Justice Court of Reno Township, in and for the County of Washoe, State of Nevada,
The State of Nevada sends greeting to R. B. Sim-clair.

You are hereby summoned to appear before me at my office, in Reno Township, in the County of Washoe, on the 2d day of February, 1893.

At 10 o'clock a.m. to answer upon the complaint of George M. Humphrey, who sues you to recover the sum of forty-five ($45) dollars, alleged to be due him for money loaned to you on the 15th day of October, 1892, when judgment will be taken against you for said amount, together with costs and damages, if you fail to appear and answer.
To the Sheriff or any Constable, Greeting: Make legal service and due return hereon.
Given under my hand this 21st day of October,
A. D. 1892. J. J. FINE,
Judge of the Peace of said Township.

The Number "Three" in the Bible.

When the world was created we find it and its surroundings composed of three elements—air, water and land—the whole lighted by the sun, moon and stars. Adam had three sons mentioned by name, and so did Noah the patriarch.
Daniel was thrown into a den with three lions for the crime of praying three times. Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego were rescued from the fiery furnace. Job had three special friends.
There were three patriarchs—Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Samuel was called three times; Elijah prostrated himself three times on the dead body of the child; Samson deceived Delilah three times before she discovered the secret of his great power, and the Ten Commandments were delivered on the third day.

Jonah was three days and nights in the whale's belly. Esthira, lowest thou most was rescued three times. Penimakes mention of the Three Graces—Faith, Hope and Charity. The famous allegorical dreams of the baker and butler were to come to pass in three days.
Then we have the Holy Trinity—Father, Son and Holy Ghost; the sacred letters on the cross were three in number, they being I. H. S.; so also the famous Roman motto was composed of three words —viz., In hoc signo.—St. Louis Republic.

A Tale of Two Daris.

There was a man named Hibbs who bought a farm, built a large, stately dwelling at the end of a long, shady avenue of maples and settled down to enjoy the comfort and independence of a farmer's life. He built a cozy little barn of logs and shingled it with clapboards.

There was another man of the name of Hibbs who bought a farm in the same neighborhood, built a cozy little dwelling of logs, shingled it with clapboards and settled down to the hard, grinding monotony of a farmer's life.
This man Hibbs built a large, stately barn at the end of a long, shady avenue of maples. At the end of ten years Hibbs' big house had broken him up, and Hibbs' big barn had enabled him to buy Hibbs' stately dwelling for about half price and move it over on his own farm.

Hibbs has a big dwelling and a big barn and represents his country in the state legislature. Hibbs has a little log cabin and a little log stable and is trying to sell out to Hibbs. He wants to quit farming and travel with a peddling wagon.—Toronto Mail.

Unconscious Feminine Cruelty.

"Let me off at Thirteenth street, conductor," said a woman as she paid her fare on a Broadway car at Cortlandt street.

The car was packed, the place just two miles away and the woman a New Yorker. From 50 to 100 people would get on and off, half a hundred steps were to be made and "standing here a hour or three-quarters of an hour would be considered before reaching Thirteenth street.

Yet this woman, who bore evidences of more than ordinary intelligence in her face and from her easy self assurance every indication of being able to take care of herself, expected the conductor to remember her request and to put her off at the right street.

The Broadway conductors are the hardest worked, most abused and criticized railroad officials in this city, but this is the sort of thing they are called upon to endure every hour in the day.
It is usually at the hands of women, and is unnecessary, foolish and cruelly inconsiderate.—New York Herald.

At the Liverpool street (London) terminus of the Great Eastern railway, on a recent Wednesday, all the passenger arriving and departing by the local train service only were counted, and reached the enormous total of 22,456 persons.

FURNITURE,

And Upholstering Goods,

The Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives called on the Secretary of the Treasury some weeks since for a statement of the condition of the Treasury and estimates of what its condition will be at the end of the present fiscal year. The Secretary has reported and his statement shows that during the first six months of the present fiscal year the receipts from all sources were $234,410,215, and the expenditures $280,571,006, leaving an excess of revenue over ordinary expenditures of $2,848,909. The cash in the Treasury, including gold reserve, on July 1st, 1892, was $192,148,488, and on December 31, 1892, $129,002,589 the difference being about equal to the excess of revenue over expenditures in the six months.

The total estimated revenues for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1893, are $406,671,850. The total estimated expenditures, $404,671,350, leaving an estimated surplus of receipts over expenditures for the current fiscal year of exactly $2,000,000. The estimated cash balance available June 30, 1893, is placed at $130,992,877, which includes $10,000,000 for the Gold Reserve fund.

For the next fiscal year, ending June 30, 1894, the Secretary estimates the revenues from all sources at $400,121,865 and the estimated expenditures which, however, do not appear to include miscellaneous and extraordinary expenditures, at $437,261,334, or an estimated surplus of $32,860,030. To this the Secretary adds $90,992,877 cash balance above the gold reserve estimated available June 30, 1893, making the estimated available balance on June 30, 1894, of $53,852,407, from which must be deducted $3,000,000 for redemption of past due bonds, fractional currency and national bank notes, and $1,000,000 for the probable payments on small subsidy contracts, leaving a balance of $47,852,407.

It is estimated $40,000,000 in contracts will be payable in 1894, which would bring the real working balance down to $7,852,407.

The expenditures on account of pensions estimated in this statement for next year amount to $169,831,350, or an increase over the amount which it is estimated will be spent for pensions this fiscal year of only $5,488,350.

The Secretary's statement for 1894 shows $40,270,089 contract liabilities to be deducted from the $47,852,407 of the balance above the gold reserve estimated as available cash, but do not show clearly whether $25,259,358 of the contracts to be paid in 1893 has or has not been deducted in the estimated cost above the Gold Reserve fund of $30, 992,877, as estimated in the cash balance available June 30, 1893, though it is presumed it was deducted in figuring the balance. Very little is allowed to the sinking fund in these estimates, and a supplemental statement places the estimated balance due the fund June 30, 1894, at $35,901,697.

A CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

The text of the bill introduced by Assemblyman Norcross to provide for a Constitutional Convention is printed in the JOURNAL. The convention is to be composed of fifty delegates apportioned to the several counties. These delegates are to receive four dollars a day for a period not exceeding twenty-five days, though they may, if necessary, remain in session a longer time. The delegates are to be chosen at a special election to be held on the fourth Tuesday in February next, and are to meet in Convention on the third Monday in April. The Constitution framed by the convention is to be submitted to the people for adoption or rejection at the general election in 1894, and if adopted, is to take effect January 1, 1895. The sum of $10,000 is appropriated to defray the expenses of the special election and of the convention.

Should the bill become a law and a new Constitution be framed by the convention, which it provides for, and submitted to the people, it is possible that it might contain objectionable features, which would result in its rejection. To provide against such a contingency, would it not be advisable to submit the amendments proposed by the Legislature of 1891, for adoption at the special election in February, if, as some able lawyers contend, they have been published according to the requirements of the Constitution? Should these amendments be adopted they would afford the people some relief if the new Constitution should not be adopted.

WHITE A FREE COINAGE MAN.

Stephen M. White, elected United States Senator in California to succeed Felton, is in accord with the Populists on every question except the sub-Treasury scheme. In a speech accepting the Senatorship he said:

"That there should be no more law than is essential to liberty and security; that the Government should be honestly and economically carried on without the use of over complex machinery; that the judiciary shall administer exact justice and that the Republic shall have within it no office or officer not within the easy approach of the poor and weak, the great and strong, are precepts which will not be denied. Nor do I think that many will be found to dispute that an honest currency, offering no advantage to bankers, bondholders, speculators or monopolists not also offered to the laborer the product and to our agriculture and ill-treated agriculture, is a deplorable and essential. I have often expressed myself in favor of gold and silver and I trust a condition of things will soon be brought about that will lead the people of this country and those selected to its National Legislature to recognize that a contracted currency is not in the interest of the tillers of the soil, of those who really need protection, but is after all a mere means of further enriching the possessors of those enormous fortunes which to-day constitute the greatest menace."

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

Capitol Notes—A Silver Bill to be Considered

SEN. STEWART APPRECIATIVE.

Important Mining Decision.

PHOENIX, A. T., Jan. 26.—An important decision was handed down last night by the Supreme Court in the case of the Water-ville Mining Company of Chicago, owners of the Black Eagle mine, vs. the owners of the Big Comet. The case originated two years ago.

The owners of the Big Comet followed a vein which traversed and crossed a vein of the Black Eagle and the latter corporation began a suit of reclamation.

The lower court decided in favor of the defendants, basing its finding on the four decisions of the Supreme Court of Colorado and the one by Judge Hallett, United States District Judge of that State, who construed Section 3355, Revised Statutes, to apply to a crossing of veins on a strike.

The case was appealed, the appellants relying on the doctrine that the section defines that instead of the owners' claims to the mine beneath the surface it is to be extended to the boundaries of the claim extended downward vertically, except in case of a lode whose apex runs parallel to the adjoining claim and to drifts outside the above described vertical boundaries.

The appellants pointed to the fact that Section 3322, which applies to transverse veins, is directly opposed to the theory of the Colorado Courts and was virtually repealed by those decisions.

The Supreme Court took a similar view of the case and reversed the judgment of the lower court.

The decision is regarded among legal and mining men as of the highest importance, overturning the construction of the mining law which has prevailed since 1877, the date of the Colorado decisions.

Damaging Testimony.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 26.—The commonwealth to the case of Robert F. Beatty, charged with administering poison to non-union workmen at Homestead, sprung a sensation to-day by producing a witness, Charles McKinnis, whose evidence is damaging in the extreme.

When McKinnis was called Beatty turned quickly in his chair, and his face flushed and his hands trembled.

As McKinnis gave his testimony in a clear voice and practically sealed the fate of Beatty, the latter did not for a moment remove his eyes from the witness. The perspiration trickled down his flushed face and he sat like one transfixed.

It was plain that Beatty had not counted on the prosecution getting hold of McKinnis. The latter told how Beatty had approached him with a proposition to go to Homestead and down the men with croton oil, and how witness declined to have anything to do with the scheme. An effort was made by lawyer Brennan to confuse McKinnis, but without success.

Capitol Notes

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—There was no formal conference at the White House to-day concerning the vacancy in the United States Supreme Court, but it can be stated on what is considered good authority, that President Harrison has made up his mind to nominate the successor to the late Justice Lamar.

The expectation is that the nomination will be sent in at the end of the week and the Republicans in the Senate are determined it shall be confirmed, even if they have to resort to the cloture, and cast "Senatorial courtesy" to the winds to accomplish it.

Long Ching Foo, representing the Chinese Equal Rights League of New York City appeared before the House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day and advocated the repeal of the Geary Exclusion Act. He urged the passage of the Andrew bill which leaves the law as it was ten years ago.

A Silver Bill to be Considered.

WASHINGTON, January 26.—By mutual agreement before the Committee on Rules, between the free silver Democrats and anti-silver Democrats, there will be a consideration in the House on the 9th and 10th of February of a silver bill, with Andrew Gates' banking and Sherman's Bullion Repeal bill as a basis of consideration and possible action.

Weather Forecast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 26.—The forecast for Nevada is rain and slight changes in temperature.

Col. John I. Mitchell the Chief. Madison, Wis., Jan. 26.—General Edward B. Bragg was this afternoon defeated in the fight for a seat in the Senate of the United States by Col. John I. Mitchell.

The explanation of Mitchell's success is that Colonel Knight, who from the beginning had from 15 to 20 followers, this morning released his little band from obligation to him, having decided that his own cause was hopeless, and enough them went to Mitchell to give him a victory on the first ballot.

A caucus to-day settled the matter; it about Mitchell, 46; Bragg, 32; Knight, 1. Total 79. The Bragg men moved to make the nomination unanimous and it was done amid great applause. The election will occur at noon to-morrow and the city is wild with excitement to-night.

Oregon Legislative Matters.

SALAS, Or., Jan. 26.—A memorial to Congress for the passage of a free coinage bill was reported to the House. An amendment was made to strike out "free silver coinage" and insert "repeal of the Sherman silver coinage law." The amendment was laid on the table and the memorial went with it.

A concurrent resolution favoring the election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people was adopted in the House to-day.

Asking for Their Extradition.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The War Department this afternoon received a dispatch from General Wheaton, commanding the Department of Texas, stating that the Mexican Government had instituted proceedings for the extradition of the three bandit leaders arrested by United States troops on a charge of violating the neutrality laws.

The dispatch was sent to the Secretary of State who will co-operate with the Mexican government in securing speedy action in the cases.

Stewart Appreciative.

CANSON, Nev., Jan. 26.—The moment Senator Stewart received news of his reelection to the United States Senate he telegraphed Geo. S. Nixon, Chairman of the State Silver party Central Committee to spread a sumptuous banquet for the Legislators and friends at his expense. Mr. Nixon has done his work well, and tonight a $2,000 feast was indulged in at Arlington dining parlors. Champagne by the case was opened and Stewart's name was on every tongue.

Disatisfied With Their Management.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 26.—The Assembly to-day by a vote of 61 to 12 adopted a resolution declaring the offices of State Railroad Commissioners vacant. There are three Railroad Commissioners appointed by the Governor and this action of the Legislature is due to dissatisfaction with their management of the affairs of the railroad commission. Notice of reconsideration was given.

Complimentary Vote for a Woman.

CHERRY, Jan. 26.—A feature of the memorializing journey was the complimentary vote received by Mrs. Mary T. Bartlett.

She is the first woman, it is said, who has ever received a vote in the State Legislature for United States Senator. Five Populists cast votes for her.

Deserves Attention.

If you have money to invest in Reno real estate, either in large or small amounts, the Reno Real Estate and Investment Company offers most particular inducements to you. By investing in its shares of stock you participate in its investments which are governed by its able and experienced Board of Trustees, consisting of Mr. C. T. Bender, Mr. Hol Levy, Mr. C. C. Powning, Mr. Geo. F. Turrittin and Mr. A. G. Fletcher. The principle object of the company is to purchase and improve centrally located business property in the city of Reno. Everyone is of one mind as to the desirability of such investments.

The company is incorporated with a capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of the par value of five dollars each, and from its already large list of share holders there is every reason to believe that it is destined to become one of the most profitable companies in the State. Of its 20,000 shares there have been 12,000 sold since August 1st.

Its shares are sold upon the monthly installment plan of ten cents per share, installments to range over a period of fifty months. In this way persons of moderate means are enabled to combine and participate in investments that usually only fall to the lot of the fortunate capitalist. Mr. F. M. Lee, the Secretary of the company, will be pleased to furnish any desired information.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

A Bill to Provide for Framing a New Constitution.

Following is the full text of Assembly Bill, No. 10, introduced by Mr. Norcross, providing for a convention to frame a new Constitution for the State of Nevada. It was read first time, rules suspended; read second time by title and referred to the Judiciary Committee:

Whereas, It appears that a majority of the electors, voting at the regular election held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, voted in favor of a Constitutional Convention; and

Whereas, The fifteenth session of the Nevada Legislature omitted to call such Constitutional Convention; now, therefore, The People of the State of Nevada, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. An election shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in February, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, of delegates to meet in convention to revise the Constitution of this State, and to frame a new Constitution.

SECTION 2. The number of delegates to be chosen to such convention shall be fifty, to be apportioned as follows: Churchill county, one; Douglas county, two; Elko county, one; Esmeralda county, two; Eureka county, four; Humboldt county, four; Lander county, two; Lyon county, three; Lincoln county, two; Nye county, one; Ormsby county, four; Storey county, ten; Washoe county, eight; White Pine county, two.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, immediately upon the passage of this Act, to prepare and transmit to the several Boards of County Commissioners of this State, an authentic copy thereof. The several Boards of County Commissioners, at least one week before the date of said election, shall cause their several Clerks to make out and deliver to the Sheriff of their county a proclamation of the purpose of said election. Printed or written copies of said proclamations shall be, prior to said election, posted in a conspicuous place at the polling place and house in each precinct in the several counties, by the Sheriffs of said counties, respectively, or by their duly authorized deputies, and said Commissioners shall cause said proclamation to be published not less than five days prior to the said day of election, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, if any be published therein. The proclamation to be made by said Commissioners to be substantially as follows:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT ON THE TWENTY-EIGHTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, EIGHTEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-THREE, at the house of _____ in _____ (or ward, if in a town or city) of _____, in the county of _____, an election will be held between _____, an election will be held between _____, on or before making the proclamation herein provided for, the several Boards of County Commissioners shall select and appoint suitable persons, who shall be qualified voters in the State and in the precinct where they are appointed, to act as inspectors and officers of said election; such officers and inspectors of election shall be selected and appointed as provided by law, and they shall perform such duties in holding said election, and in making due returns therefrom, as are required by the general election laws of this State, so far as the same are not inconsistent with, or in conflict with the provisions of this Act; provided, That the said inspectors and clerks shall each be allowed five dollars for their services in all precincts where less than three hundred votes have been cast at said election, and in all precincts where more than three hundred votes have been cast, the said inspectors and clerks shall each be allowed one dollar additional to said five dollars, for each additional one hundred votes cast over and above said first three hundred votes, and they shall be allowed no further compensation.

SECTION 4. The provisions of an Act entitled "An Act relating to elections and to more fully secure the secrecy of the ballot," approved March 13, 1891, and all other general election laws now in force, in all cases in which the same shall not be inconsistent with, or in conflict with the provisions of this Act, are hereby made applicable to said election; provided, That the returns from the different precincts to the Clerk of the Board of County Commissioners shall be sent by messenger, who shall not receive mileage therefor, or shall be transmitted by mail.

SECTION 5. All qualified electors of this State, who were registered as voters at the general election held in November, A. D. eighteen hundred and ninety-two, and who shall continue to be qualified voters and entitled to register as such at the election herein provided for, shall be entitled to vote at such election without further registration, and the registry list of voters in the several counties for said year are hereby adopted, and shall be used by all officers of the election for all purposes of the election herein provided for, and all qualified voters who are not registered as such prior to said general election to the year eighteen hundred and ninety-two, or who have become qualified voters since said election shall be entitled to register as voters at the election herein provided for, upon application as required by law to the Registry Agents in their respective townships, prior to six o'clock p. m. on the eighteenth day of February, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, when the registry of voters shall be closed.

SECTION 6. The Secretary of State shall, as soon as the returns of said election shall be received by him, or within twenty days after said election, in the presence of the Governor and Attorney General, open all the returns, and the Governor shall forthwith issue a proclamation declaring the names of the persons who have been chosen members of said convention.

SECTION 7. The delegates so chosen shall meet in convention in the Assembly Chamber of the Capitol, in the City of Carson, on the third day of April, eighteen hundred and ninety-three, at twelve o'clock p. m. They shall, by a viva voce vote, elect one of their number President, and such Secretaries and other officers, clerks and assistants as they shall deem necessary, and fix their compensation. The convention shall adopt such rules and regulations for its own government as a majority of the members may determine, and said convention shall be the judge of the election and qualification of its own members. It shall be the duty of the Governor to attend said convention at the opening thereof and to preside at all meetings until a President has been elected and taken his seat, but the President shall have neither the casting vote or any other vote therein. All public officers, Boards and Commissioners shall furnish such convention with all such information, papers, statements, books or other public documents in their possession as the said convention shall order or require for its use from time to time while in session.

SECTION 8. The delegates to the convention shall receive the sum of four dollars per diem, and shall be allowed mileage at the rate of twelve and one-half cents for each mile actually traveled in going to and in returning from said convention; provided, no compensation shall be allowed delegates after the expiration of twenty-five days. The amount of pay of all members, officers and assistants, together with the amount actually due them for mileage and all other expenses incurred in the necessary and actual transaction of the business of said convention, shall be certified to by the President and Secretary of said convention, and shall be paid by the Treasurer of State on the warrant of the Controller in the same manner as the members and attaches of the Legislature are paid.

SECTION 9. A journal of the proceedings of the said convention shall be kept, and shall, at the final adjournment thereof, be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and the Constitution agreed to by the convention shall be recorded in his office.

SECTION 10. The Constitution framed by such convention shall be submitted to the people for their adoption or rejection at the regular election to be held in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, and shall be voted on as a whole. The ballots or tickets at such election shall have printed upon them the words: "For the New Constitution," and immediately below upon the next line, "Against the New Constitution," in the same manner as the names of candidates are printed upon the ballots, under the General Election Law approved March thirteen, eighteen hundred and ninety-one, and the choice of the elector shall be indicated by a cross. The said vote shall be canvassed, and the returns made therefrom in the same manner and by the same officers as prescribed by the General Election Laws in the election of State officers. The returns by counties of said vote shall be sealed up and transmitted to the Secretary of State, and on the third Monday of December, eighteen hundred and ninety-four, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Associate Justices, or a majority thereof, shall meet at the office of the Secretary of State and open and canvass said election returns. If by such canvass it is ascertained that a majority of the whole number of votes cast at such election be in favor of such new Constitution, the Executive of this State shall, by his proclamation, declare such new Constitution to be the Constitution of the State of Nevada, and that it will take effect at such time as the said convention may have, in its discretion, fixed. If said convention fix no time for said Constitution to take effect, then it shall take effect upon the first day of January, eighteen hundred and ninety-five.

SECTION 11. It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the State, at least three months prior to said election, to cause twelve thousand copies of said new Constitution to be printed in pamphlet form and distributed among the several County Clerks in the proportion of the number of votes cast in their respective counties at the general election held in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-two. Said County Clerks shall, upon receipt of said copies of the new Constitution, immediately cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, a notice that said copies of the new Constitution are at the office of the said County Clerk, and that they are ready for distribution among the electors of said county. Upon application therefor by any qualified elector in said county the County Clerk shall give to each applicant one copy of the new Constitution, and no more.

SECTION 12. All the printing required under the provisions of this Act shall be done at the State Printing Office.

SECTION 13. In case any vacancy occurs by reason of death, resignation or otherwise, of any delegate to said convention, the same shall be filled by the convention.

SECTION 14. The sum of nine thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the General Fund to pay the expenses of said convention, and the sum of ten thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of the General Fund to pay the expenses of said election.

The Wadsworth Dispatch says: "The 'traveling stone' is not a myth. No snow on the ground and a dollar to a gambler boy should produce a specimen from Wadsworth. We have seen half a dozen specimens during the past ten years. However, the specimens are not magnetic, but they will travel sometimes four or five feet when placed on a table. They are hollow globes containing gravel and sand, and the few that have been found have been sent out to private parties."

THE STEWART BANQUET.

Eureka Presented With the "Silver State" Banner.

Last evening a banquet was given at the Arlington at Carson by Hon. Wm. M. Stewart, on which occasion the Silver State banner was presented to Eureka county. Though the weather was unpropitious the attendance was large, invited guests from Reno, Virginia City and other places being present. Wine, wit and speech-making was the order of the day.

Chairman Nixon on behalf of the Silver State made the presentation speech and was roundly applauded.

Hon. Thomas Wron accepted the banner in behalf of Eureka county, and made the following remarks appropriate to the occasion:

HON. THOS. WRON'S SPEECH:

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen:—In 1873 silver was surreptitiously demonetized in the interest of the bondholding and money lending classes of Europe and the United States. In 1878 this legislative crime was in part righted by the passage of what is known as the "Bland bill." When that Act was pending in Congress the opponents of silver predicted that the partial demonetization of silver provided for in that Act would be followed by the greatest financial crisis ever known in this country, that the gold would all be driven out of the country and that many other lesser evils would follow as a corollary of the greater. Thirteen years of coinage under the "Bland bill" followed and not one of the predictions of the golding prophets was verified. No financial panic occurred and instead of all the gold leaving the country it accumulated. Notwithstanding the failure, however, of all the anti-silver predictions after the passage of the Bland bill ten thousand lying golding newspapers and a host of Republican and Democratic golding orators, both great and small, continue to iterate and reiterate in the face of fifteen years of actual experience under the "Bland Act," the state and exploded predictions of 1878 with additions and emendations. In the States largely interested in the demonetization of silver and especially in the silver producing States an unaccountable apathy upon this question of most vital importance, involving as it does the very existence of several of the silver producing States, has prevailed all classes. Until within the last year nothing was done or said to correct the false reports in relation to silver mining spread abroad in the East by golding papers and golding speakers, and believed no doubt in the absence of contradiction by hundreds of thousands of honest conscientious voters except what was said and done by those Senators and members of the lower house of Congress from the silver States who were

TRUE TO THE SILVER INTERESTS.

And the most faithful of those were left in uncertainty as to how far the people of their respective States would justify and support them in their billion against party conventions and party caucus in behalf of silver. To awaken the people of the silver States to the danger that menaces their chief industry—to arouse to brave and vigorous action independent of party prejudices and party affiliations—to invite the co-operation of our silver States, and to punish all aspiring traitors to the silver cause, and I may be permitted by way of parenthesis, that Wm. McKinley of Ohio and John G. Carlisle of Kentucky have been marked for the slaughter and to give that moral support to our Senators and Representatives in Congress that cheers the heart and stiffens the back of the bravest of politicians, the Silver party of Nevada was organized.

Dayton, in Lyon county, Nevada, has the honor of initiating the formation of Silver Leagues in this State closely followed by Humboldt and Eureka counties in the order named. From the time silver fell to one dollar and ten cents an ounce silver mining began to languish, and none but the richest bonanzas could be worked at any considerable profit at that price, and it was only by the working of the richest mines, and the discovery of the "Broken Hill" mines in Australia, that the production was kept equal to the demand. But the productive life of a bonanza rarely exceeds ten years; the Comstock, one of the greatest silver lodes ever discovered, with its numerous and immense bonanzas, has been practically exhausted insofar as large profits are concerned, in thirty years, and a considerable part of that time it was unproductive. During the DEPRESSION IN SILVER.

Since it fell to one dollar and ten cents an ounce, one by one the rich mines of this country have been closed and the miners who were employed in them have been driven to "tribute" to earn a scanty subsistence for themselves and families. With depression in mining came depression in all other branches of business. "We have prices gone from bad to worse," until last year, when actual distress stared the people of the mining counties in the face. Both of the old parties had been deaf to our cries of distress and appeals for relief; both had violated their promises in behalf of silver. The almost universal distress and the treachery of the two old parties had prepared the people for revolt and when the silver standard was raised, the people of the mining counties flocked to its protecting folds almost to a man.

The farmers of Washoe and Douglas and Lyon counties showed by their votes their earnest sympathy with the silver cause; while in Ormsby, under the most discouraging circumstances, the Silver party won a splendid victory. The Silver men now consolidated and encouraged by a most brilliant success, cherishing no bitterness towards those of their fellow citizens who are earnestly in favor of securing the demonetization of silver by all honorable means, invite those who differed with them in the last campaign to join their ranks.

"What constitutes a State?"
"Men who shut their eyes." "And know their rights, and knowing dare maintain."

Aid us to maintain our State to the ideal of the poet.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE.

Within the next two years unless the Democratic party acts with greater wisdom than I believe it will, the shores of every State will be sown with the weeds of Democratic statements, who have been untrue to the silver question. Within the next two years the Congressional elections take place. Within two years our State and county elections will be held. When the time arrives for marshaling the silver hosts of the State, they will rally under this beautiful banner, the generous gift of that early and able champion of the Silver party, the Silver State, and with Eureka county in the van, struggling to maintain the proud position she took on the 8th day of November, they will march on to a victory more sweeping than the last. Old party fossils may predict an early dissolution of the party but it will not disperse, despite their predictions until aided by its noble allies in our sister silver States, and in the East the white metal shall be restored to its constitutional place with gold as the metal money of the country and the drooping industries of our State shall be restored to their old time prosperity, and mining, farming, the mechanical arts and all kindred industries shall again flourish side by side, and the land shall be again blessed with thousands of happy, prosperous homes.

On behalf of the Silver party of Eureka county I accept your magnificent gift.
